FEES FOR PLANNING APPLICATIONS

Most planning applications must now be accompanied by the appropriate fee (as laid down in the Town & Country Planning (Fees for Applications and Deemed Applications) Regulations 1989. The scale of fees is given overleaf, together with a note concerning exemptions. This scale is not comprehensive; certain special provisions apply to reserved matters, for instance.

Applicants should complete this form, attach their cheque or postal order to it and send it with their planning application to the Local Planning Authority. Cheques and postal orders should be crossed and made payable to: 'Hinckley & Bosworth Borough Council'.

Any application not accompanied by the requisite fee will not be proceeded with until the correct fee has been received.
