Planning Application @ Overfield Stables Watery Sheepy Magna

Friday, 12 September, 2008 1:37 PM

From: "James Hicks" <James.Hicks@hinckley-bosworth.gov.uk>

To: williamlyons@btinternet.com

Bill/Linda

Further to out meeting on site this morning I attach a copy of the new style national planning application form. You will note that the form asks a question some of which may not be relevant to your proposal, however were possible answer all questions as accurately as possible and this will avoid the risk of your application being validated.

I have looked that the application requirements but can find no other details that need to be submitted together than the normal, site location plans, layout plan, elevations and fee. The fee for the application will be £70 as the proposal if for agricultural purposes and of a floor space less than 465 square metres.

I trust this is all the information you need at the present time and welcome the sight of your revised building design prior to the submission of a formal application.

Kind regards

James Hicks
