Parking provision

The proposed plan does not increase the property size through the addition of extra rooms, it is purely the addition of solar panels to the external roof of the property so there is no impact on the existing parking provision.