

Hardstanding & proposed building

This confirms that the parking area will be formed from a permeable material road plannings. This will allow rain water to drain into the land and any surface water will drain towards our own land.

The proposed building will be fitted with guttering and water butts in order to capture rainwater for use in the propagation of the planting on the site allotment.