Reasons for comment:

Comments: Strongly support this application. Very regular suspicious activity with cars driving around the estate and taking pictures. Within 5 years since the estate has been open, 2 cars have been stolen and 2 homes have been broken into. Police are fully aware.

The erection of gates will minimise suspicious traffic driving into the estate, observing and monitoring houses and taking photos of homes and vehicles.

Furthermore, whilst my own car has not been stolen, we have video evidence of thief's attempting to break into it.

Whilst gates may not prevent every crime, it will go some way in reducing the potential of further crime occurring on our estate, which appears to be a target location for thief's.

Thank you for considering my supportive comments.

Kind regards
