Part II - Particulars of decision

The Hinckley & Bosworth Borough Council hereby certify:

That on 28 May 2025 the use described in the First Schedule hereto in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule hereto would be lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 for the following reason:-

The proposed change of use in these site-specific circumstances does not represent a significant material change to the use of the premises in their existing use and is not considered to amount to development for which planning permission is required.

Christopher Brown MRTPI
Head of Planning

Date : 13 August 2025

NOTES

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purposes of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. It certifies that the use/operations/matter specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land described in the Second Schedule would be lawful on the specified date and, therefore, would not be liable to enforcement action under Part 7 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the use/operations/matter described in the First Schedule and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any use/operations/matter which is/are materially different from that/those described or which relate(s) to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use or operation are begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
