Mr Burton,

Re: Discharge of conditions attached to planning permission 09/00922/FUL- Moat House Retirement Home, New Road, Burbage

Following receipt of correspondence from Leicestershire County Council Archaeology department I am writing to you in relation to conditions 4 (development details in relation to archaeology) and 5 (implementation of a written scheme of investigation) of the above planning permission.

Condition 4 (archaeological development details)- I can confirm that the development details contained within the Archaeological Report, reference ULAS Report 2011-031 received on 23 June 2011 are acceptable.

Condition 5 (implementation of written scheme of investigation)- I can confirm that the development details contained within the Archaeological Report, reference ULAS Report 2011-031 received on 23 June 2011 are acceptable to enable me to partially discharge the terms of this condition. I cannot confirm that the terms of this condition have been fully complied with until such time that a final report and archive have been submitted, as detailed in section 7 of your Archaeological Report.

If you would like to discuss the contents of this letter please contact Scott Jackson on 01455 255929.

Yours Sincerely,

Scott Jackson
