	Has another agricultural building been constructed within the last two years? (The guidance that accompanies Part 6 indicates that the calculation of the ground area should include other buildings constructed within the preceding two years. In considering the other building constructed, the development still falls within the 1000 square metre threshold).
Comment:	No other agricultural building has been constructed within the last two years.

The proposal does meet the criteria of Schedule 2, Part 6, Class A.

The proposed unit is considered acceptable and justified within the site. In terms of design, external appearance and siting of the proposed extension, it is considered acceptable and therefore prior approval is granted.

Equality Implications

Section 149 of the Equalities Act 2010 created the public sector equality duty. Section 149 states:-

- (1) A public authority must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:
- eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act;
 - advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;
 - foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

Officers have taken this into account and given due regard to this statutory duty, and the matters specified in Section 149 of the Equalities Act 2010 in the determination of this application.

There are no known equality implications arising directly from this development.
