Good morning David,

We can only apologise as Sarah is on long term sick leave so we are just trying to do our best to keep on top of everything. Obviously this site had a lot of issues relating to noncompliance of the bat licence which was the responsibility of the site owner, so again just trying to piece it all together what has been agreed since then.

I'm happy now with the plans as that is what has been agreed on site.

Kind regards,

Nikki Morton MSc MCIEEM
