Thank you for consulting Active Travel England. We will endeavour to formally respond to your consultation within the statutory timeframes set out in The Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015, or within 21 days for any re-consultation request.

However, if insufficient information is received in order to allow us to make a substantive response to the consultation, Active Travel England will contact you to request further information. The statutory deadline will not commence until receipt of the additional information.

As a public body, Active Travel England is subject to the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, which gives members of the public the right to access the information we hold. In the event of a request being received, we will be obliged to release information relating to the application and our response unless an exemption applies. You should therefore inform us if you believe any elements of your submission to be confidential or commercially sensitive so that we can take your concerns into account.

Should your email not relate to a consultation request, Active Travel England will respond in due course. Please note any future correspondence not relating to a consultation request should be sent to Planning-Advice@activetravelengland.gov.uk
