Please explain why you consider the existing or last use of the land is lawful, or why you consider that any existing buildings, which it is proposed to alter or extend are lawful

The garage has been standing since approximately 1994. We're not looking to extend it in anyway, just to alter it's use and change in the inside of the building and the door.

☐ Temporary

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

We wish to change the use of the detached garage to be used as a bedroom with an ensuite for the use of an elderly relative who is moving in with us. We plan to alter the inside of the garage to make it fit to be a bedroom with an ensuite. We won't be extending the building at all, it is right next to the house and isn't separated by a fence. It will be used as part of the main dwellinghouse.

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
