Part I - Particulars of Application

Date of Application

19 May 2026

Application No.

26/00464/TPO

Particulars and location of proposed work:

Beech (T1) - Fell as the tree is overbearing in an urban area and concerns over root damage and debris

Stanley House 29 High Street Barwell Leicester Leicestershire

Part II

The tree affected by the proposed work is protected by the Hinckley and Bosworth (29 High Street) Tree Preservation Order 94/00001/TPORD.

Part III - Particulars of decision

The Hinckley and Bosworth Borough Council hereby refuses consent to the work proposed in the application referred to in Part 1 hereof in accordance with the application form and plans submitted for the following reason(s) :-

1. The proposed works would be considered to be unnecessary and would result in a significant and detrimental impact upon the protected tree and the character and appearance of the surrounding area, including the character and significance of the Barwell Conservation Area, to which the tree positively contributes to. By virtue of these factors, the proposal would be contrary to, and in conflict with, Policies DM10, DM11, and DM12 of the adopted Site Allocations and Development Management Policies Development Plan Document (2016) and Paragraph 136 and Chapters 12 and 16 of the National Planning Policy Framework (2024).

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ THE NOTES AT THE END OF THIS DOCUMENT

NOTES TO APPLICANT: -

1. The application has been determined in accordance with the following submitted details:

- Application Form (submitted: 19.05.2026)
- Photos of the Tree (submitted: 19.05.2026).
- Planning Statement (submitted: 19.05.2026).

NOTES

1. Please quote the application number in all correspondence.
2. This decision relates either to tree(s) protected by a Tree Preservation Order or to tree(s) not so protected but which are situated in a Conservation Area. You will see which is the case by referring to Part 11 Overleaf.

3. Tree protected by a Tree Preservation Order

- (i) Where the Council has refused consent under the order or has granted such consent subject to conditions, or where the Council has given any certificate or direction, the applicant or the person directed, if he is aggrieved by their decision, or by any such certificate or direction may by notice of appeal to The Planning Inspectorate. (Notice of appeal must be given in writing within 28 days from receipt of notification of the decision. Appeal forms can be obtained from the Planning Inspectorate, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, BRISTOL, BS1 6PN, tel. 0303 444 5000 or online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>.)
- (ii) If any person suffers loss or damage in consequence of any refusal of consent under a tree preservation order or of any grant of such consent subject to conditions, he may be entitled to recover from the Council compensation in respect of such loss or damage provided that a claim is served on the Council in writing within 12 months of the decision of the Council or of The Planning Inspectorate on appeal and provided that the Council has not certified:
 - a) that the refusal or condition is in the interests of good forestry or
 - b) in the case of trees other than trees comprised in woodlands that the tree have an outstanding or special amenity value.

4. Trees in a Conservation Area

- (i) if consent has been granted you may commence work immediately. You must then complete the work within two years of your notice to the District Council, otherwise permission will expire and you will need to once again give six weeks notice.
- (ii) if the Council has refused consent, it will probably also have made a Tree Preservation Order (see part III overleaf) in respect of same or all of the trees. If it has the provisions relating to such orders will therefore apply.

5. Penalties

Any person contravening the provisions of a tree preservation order or the provisions of Section 211 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1990, relating to trees in Conservation Areas by cutting down, or uprooting or wilfully destroying a tree or by wilfully damaging, topping or lopping a tree in such a manner as to be likely to destroy it is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £20,000, or on indictment to an unlimited fine. The penalty for other offences is a fine not exceeding £2,500 on summary conviction.
