The parking provision and access for this property will not be changed.

We currently have enough to park 4 cars on the driveway and one in the integral garage and the alterations will not have any effect on this.