Comments Details

	There are no designated heritage assets within the site or its setting so I have no comments to make on this proposal.
Comments:	There is reference on Ordnance Survey maps to the application site being within the vicinity of an encampment of King Richard III on the eve of the Battle of Bosworth Field (1485), with a corresponding record on the Leicestershire and Rutland Historic Environment Record. As the vicinity of the site may have archaeological potential, I would recommend consulting with Leicestershire County Council Planning Archaeology.

Kind regards
