

My proposal is to change the front door and windows to the front elevation only, replacing lime wash render where necessary.