

The variations to the approved plans are minor in scale and extent and contained within the existing footprint of the solar farm, and as such have had no material impact upon the heritage assets located within the wide setting of the application site. As such I raise no objections to the application