

There are no planned developments to the existing site. This application is solely for change of use from garden market to wholly residential. There is an existing residential dwelling and this will not change. There will be no alterations to the current site in terms of building work. The business Faulkners Nurseries ceased trading in 2017 and the garden market use is no longer required.