Comments Details

Hello, I am not satisfied there is justification for a high hedge complaint here.

The comments made appear to be more in relation to a perceived tree related nuisance and the vegetation in question appears to be more individual shrubbery which forms a semi-broken screen at the bottom of the neighbouring property.

Comments: The complainant appears to allude to a right to light which is almost certainly not defensible in this instance.

If a site visit or further information is provided please do let me know.

Kindest Regards,
Simon Green

Kind regards
