Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

We are currently involved in the refurbishment and renewal of building services at Croner House, Wheatfield Way, Hinckley - and have made a proposal to the client regarding using an existing compound currently used solely for bike racking, to locate some external air conditioning plant.

The existing compound is to the rear of the building where their staff car park is, and is enclosed by hit and miss fencing to restrict view from the public highway. Our intention is to put 3No. outdoor air conditioning units (condensers) within the compound, instate a hit and miss fence complete with double opening access gate to completely enclose the units, and then renew the bike racking and alter the arrangement so that the same amount of bike racks are still available for the use of the staff / visitors / etc. This will form part of the modernization of the building services which is being swapped over from old boiler and chiller plant, to new VRF air conditioning.
