Good Morning,

Further to a previous enquiry in February this year, the solicitors acting for the owners of the site have now requested written confirmation from the Authority that no objections were received to the above proposal, other than those received during the processing of the applications, in particular in respect to issues of title or ownership of the application site.

I look forward to your reply as soon as possible, but in the meantime if you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Again, I thank you for your assistance.

Kind Regards,

David Raybould
